About the Workshop

The upcoming workshop at our college will focus on Public Interest Litigation (PIL) and recent trends in the Supreme Court of India. PIL has been instrumental in addressing public grievances and promoting social justice through judicial activism. The workshop aims to explore landmark PIL cases and analyze evolving judicial interpretations. Participants will gain insights into the role of PIL in shaping Indian jurisprudence and understand the contemporary judicial trends influencing societal change. It promises to be a comprehensive exploration of legal advocacy and judicial decision-making in the context of public interest.

Objective of the workshop

The objective of the workshop at our college on Public Interest Litigation (PIL) and trends in the Supreme Court of India is to deepen understanding of PIL's pivotal role in Indian legal activism. It aims to analyze recent judicial trends, significant PIL cases, and their impact on society. Participants will explore how PILs have influenced policy, governance, and social justice, while also examining the evolving judicial approach towards public interest issues. Ultimately, the workshop seeks to empower attendees with insights into PIL's transformative potential within the Indian legal framework.
